$20.00 per person

The evening will begin with a screening and Q&A of the award-winning documentary film, When Voices Meet. From a nation torn apart by Apartheid, children of many races led by Sharon Katz, sang their way into the hearts and souls of the people of South Africa to heal a nation. The project was called The Peace Train. When Voices Meet documents the trials, tribulations and triumphs of those musician activists and young choir members. They performed together for seven years and then reunited 20 years later to tell their stories and reflect upon The Peace Train's impact. It's a joyful, inspiring story of hope and determination despite tremendous obstacles, including lessons that apply to American issues today. After a brief intermission, Sharon Katz and The Peace Train will perform a concert.
